Armies of Nazis In Poland Are Being Shattered By Reds

Lublin and Lukow Captured and at Warsaw Scenes Of Panic Ensur

By Daniel De Luce

MOSCOW, July 25—(P)—Swift Russian columns paced by churning tanks, Kuban Cossacks and swarms of planes were less than 50 miles today from Warsaw after splitting German armies in the heart of Poland by capturing Lublin and Lukow.

The Russian drive over the unobstructed plains carried the Red army 40 miles forward in 24 hours. More than 12 hours ago, they were on the approach of Siedlce (which the Germans said they had evacuated), 50 miles east of the Polish capital.

The Soviets were less than 20 miles from the Wisla (Vistula) river, which flows by Warsaw and forms the last natural barrier to Germany itself. A swift crossing of the Wisla would outflank the Warsaw region and expose the garrison of the city of 1,265,700 to attack from the south.

Cross San River

German Silesia lies within 150 miles of advanced Russian forces which splashed across the San river.

Red pilots reported scenes of panic around Warsaw, with roads choked with transport. The main frontal assault toward Warsaw was 50 miles wide and indications were that other army groups from the northeast Bug river and from captured Lublin were about to join in a coordinated assault on the capital, 319 miles from Berlin.

(The German communiqué reported bitter fighting continuing inside Lwow, third city of Poland already bypassed and 60 miles behind Red army vanguards. The Nazis asserted that their Lublin garrison still was resisting "superior enemy forces attacking from all sides.")

Positions of Other Armies

Positions of other Russian army groups as shown by communiques were:

Within two hours forced march of East Prussia.

Frontally attacking by-passed Brest Litovsk, cut off and isolated far behind the front.

Less than 70 miles southeast of the Baltic port of Riga.

Frontally attacking Bialystok on the Leningrad-Warsaw railroad.

Forty miles west of invested Lwow with the capture of Moszcyska.

Virtually surrounding Daugavpils in the Latvian republic after capturing 80 towns to the northeast.

Outflanking Kaunas in the Lithuanian republic.

Virtually at the border of southern Estonia after advancing nine miles northwest of Pskov.

Thirteen miles southwest of captured Lublin at Zelzhitse.

Fourteen miles north of Stanislawow, gateway to the Carpathian passes into Czechoslovakia.

108 miles east of Krakow.

120 miles east of Lodz and 42 miles east of Radom.

(The Germans said the Russians were preparing another offensive north of Iasi, 174 miles northeast of the Romania oil center of Ploesti.)

Southeast of Narva, the Russians resumed their attack from their bridgehead inside the Soviet Estonian republic in the 30-mile corridor between Lake Peipus and the Baltic sea. This seemed to be an offensive along the Gulf of Finland toward the Estonian capital of Tallinn.

Russia's seven great army groups moved westward with air support never matched in the east, brushing aside any obstacles encountered. It appeared that the next few hours would determine whether Hitler would attempt a stand on the Wisla.

Fleeing groups of dusty, tattered Germans were declared rushing for the closest bridges on the river.

Members of the new National Committee of Poland went west with the Red army toward Warsaw, keeping contact with the seat of the temporary governing body at Chelm. In each captured Polish town (9,000 square miles of German-held Poland have been captured), the committee opened recruiting offices for the Polish army fighting beside the Soviets. Hundreds of administrators were established in liberated towns.

Prison for Theft of Personal Effects of Dead Soldiers

KANSAS CITY, July 25—(P)—Arthur Earl George, 36, today was sentenced to three years in federal prison on his plea of guilty to stealing personal effects of dead soldiers at the Kansas City quartermaster depot.

Judge Merrill E. Otis pronounced the sentence.

U.S. Forces Mile Inland On Tinian

At Guam U. S. Casualties Through July 22 348 Killed

U. S. PACIFIC FLEET HEADQUARTERS, Pearl Harbor, July 25—(P)—Fighting Americans, bent on complete conquest of the Marianas, have stormed almost a mile inland on Tinian and captured the western third of the island's main airfield.

At Guam, 125 miles to the south, they have isolated another major airstrip and are hammering at the approaches to Agaña, capital of the former U. S. possession.

Of Tinian, where the marines landed Sunday at 7:40 a. m., Chester W. Nimitz said in a communiqué: "Our casualties through July 23 (Sunday) were light. The situation is considered well in hand."

American casualties on Guam through July 22 were 348 killed, 110 missing and 1,500 wounded. War Correspondent Clinton Green said marines went ashore on Tinian after probably the greatest half-hour air, naval and land-based bombardment yet concentrated on a single island in the Pacific.

The Japanese did not open fire until the ninth landing wave, and then only with mortars and machine guns — "lightly, compared to Saipan." The marines progressed at least 600 yards during the first two hours.

Go Underground

Green said Tinian's civilian population of 15,000 apparently went underground as in the early days at Saipan, three miles north of Tinian. Hiding in the bushes were several children, including one 18 months old. They were taken to Saipan.

Only major island in the southern Marianas upon which Americans have not yet landed is Rota, midway between Guam and Tinian. It was attacked by carrier aircraft Sunday.

Bombers from the Nimitz area and from the New Guinea theatre, commanded by Gen. Douglas MacArthur, continued joint assaults upon the Caroline islands, striking Yap, Palau, Woleai and Ponape. Two of eight intercepting enemy planes were destroyed at Yap.

In British New Guinea, the vanguard of 45,000 Japanese trapped near Wewak again three times attacked American lines east of Aitape in a desperate new attempt to break through to Japanese-held Dutch territory.

Into Jaws of Death

They drove straight into American lines in a column of companies, only to be mowed down by 75 mm. and 105 mm. artillery fire. Quickly-closing Yank jungle fighters cleaned out the few who survived.

MacArthur's communiqué today said "Prisoners of war give a vivid picture of deterioration on the Japanese line of communications and the starvation level of his forward supplies. His casualties already run into the thousands and his fight for survival is becoming more acute."

H. V. Stephens To Speak Here

Aspirant for the U. S. Senate Give Speech Wednesday

Howard V. Stephens, candidate for the Republican nomination for the United States Senate, will deliver an address from in front of the court house at 8 o'clock Wednesday night in which he will fully discuss his position on various issues both domestic and foreign.

Preceding his address a group of entertainers, with Lou Black as master of ceremonies, "Ozark Red" and his fiddle, "Jerry" Fronek, accordion, and Luke McNealey, guitar and songster, Gambel twins, Violet and Vesta, singers and players, Ann Schaeffer, the "song birds of the Ozarks" from station KWTO, will give special numbers.

Mr. Stephens, who has been making a vigorous campaign, is now in southwest Missouri, where he has spoken to good crowds and will arrive here in the afternoon and be at Hotel Bothwell where he will meet a number of local Republican leaders.

Stephens, St. Louis shoe manufacturer, is running on a platform of "more business thinking and practices in government." He states he desires an opportunity to apply some of his principles along governmental lines.

Assails New Deal

In his campaign he has been especially critical of the "growth of bureaucracy under the New Deal" and has stated that it must be replaced with "the proved system of constitutional government."

"Coming up the hard way" he declares he sold newspapers when he was ten years old and his first job was in a machine shop at $8.10 a week.

He was born in Cincinnati August 13, 1887, and in 1910 went to St. Louis where he has since resided.

Following a brief venture in the oil business Stephens went to work for Roberts, Johnson & Rand Shoe company, and in 1916 organized the Johnson-Stephens-Shinkle Shoe company and has been its president since.

Win War First

His position on major issues is first to win the war, then have postwar jobs available for men and others who served their country in its prosecution. He endorses collective bargaining as a fundamental right of labor and asserts if elected he will work for coordination of prices to wages for whatever time such controls may

Two Primaries In South Today

By the Associated Press

Two southern Democratic primaries lead today's political parade.

In South Carolina, the vehemently anti-New Deal Senator E. D. "Cotton Ed" Smith is running for renomination against Gov. Olin D. Johnston, who says the war requires backing the Roosevelt administration, and these other candidates: Attorney General John N. Daniel, Augustus S. Merrimon of Sumter and Dr. Carl B. Epps, Sumter surgeon.

In Arkansas, the senate's only woman member, Hattie Caraway, runs into opposition on her renomination try from Rep. J. W. Fulbright, author of the "Lasting Peace" resolution in the U. S. house; Governor Homer Adkins; oil man T. H. Barton of Eldorado and J. Rosser Venable of Little Rock.

Women Listen For Hours to Candidates

ST. LOUIS, July 25—(P)—

Nearly 900 members of the League of Women Voters gathered yesterday to hear most of the candidates for nomination to represent their parties in the senatorial and gubernatorial races.

It took the 13 sun-tanned summer-campers nearly six hours to tell the quietly listening crowd what they would do if elected to office.

Armory Kept Open to Secure Recruits for Company F

Company F, Fourth Missouri regiment, Sedalia, in compliance with Gov. Forrest C. Donnell's and Mayor A. H. Wilks' proclamation designating July 23 to August 5th (inclusive) as State Guard recruiting weeks, has arranged to keep open the new armory each evening excepting Sunday, July 30th, for the purpose of receiving new recruits. Lieut. Virgil Gilbert is the recruiting officer to receive applications.

During the World War I National Guard units contributed nearly 500,000 men to the regular army. Two out of every five divisions that went to France were National Guard units. The National Guard met the 1940-41 crisis in the manner which was expected and eighteen infantry divisions moved into training camps and now most of these divisions are over seas and have met the enemy with success.

After the National Guards were inducted into federal service in 1940-41 the states of the country were left without enforcement troops and it was necessary that an organization be effected at once to take over where the National Guards left off and under federal and state supervision companies of State Guards were immediately organized throughout the United States.

The purpose of the State Guard is to suppress insurrections, domestic violence, unlawful combinations, aid in enforcing the state laws and protect rights and property of citizens. It is a startling truth that during the period 1888 to 1895 the regular army was used in 328 instances in the suppression of domestic disturbances. State Guardsmen are in the main to serve as security troops while the National Guard is away.

All male citizens are eligible between the ages of 18 years and through 55 years of age to become State Guardsmen and as set forth by Governor Donnell's proclamation it is urged that the citizens of Sedalia aid in obtaining new recruits for Company F.

Sedalia Police in New Uniforms

The Sedalia police department members today donned their new police uniforms purchased by the city council. The officers will now have complete uniforms all alike.

They consist of the blue 8-point caps, blue serge coats of regulation police style, regulation police blue shirts and the blue serge pants with a sky blue stripe down each pant leg. Each officer received two shirts and two pairs of pants.

Twelve uniforms purchased were turned over to the officers Monday.

Upheaval In Reich Grave

Goering Named Head of Defense And Goebbels War Commissar

LONDON, July 25—(P)—Adolf Hitler appointed Reichsmarshal Hermann Goering chairman of the council for defense of the Reich tonight and issued a decree ordering total mobilization of Germany and occupied territories.

Propaganda Minister Paul Joseph Goebbels was appointed the reich's commissar for the total war effort of the reich. Earlier, Heinrich Himmler had been appointed commander in chief of the German home army in the aftermath of the announced bomb attempt on Hitler's life last Thursday.

A vast blood purge of the Prussian military leadership, from general officers down to majors, has been reported in progress in Germany since then.

The announcement by DNB, official German news agency, said the corpulent Goering will supervise German railways, the German postal service, all public institutions and industries with the view of limiting or simplifying all matters not directly connected with the war effort. He may issue directives to the highest reich authorities.

"Goering has to adapt the entire public life to the requirements of total warfare in every possible moment," the Berlin announcement said, "in particular, Goering has to look after all public meetings and institutions to be shaped according to the aims emanating from total war. No forces may be lent from either the armed forces or armaments."

Armies Reeling Back

The governmental reorganization came with Russian army groups less than 50 miles from Warsaw, less than 150 from German Silesia, and within artillery range of East Prussia. Appeal to Break With Hitler

MOSCOW, July 25—(P)—Moscow newspapers printed today over the name of 16 captured German generals an appeal to all German officers and soldiers to renounce Adolf Hitler and bring the war to a close by refusing to fight further.

Reproductions of the signatures of the generals were headed by that of Gen. Velkers, former commander of the 27th Army corps.

The statement declared that the signers, through long service in the German army in two wars, had come to the conclusion that the present struggle is hopeless. They appealed directly to the German army to:

- (1) Break with Hitler immediately.
- (2) Denounce all orders from him or his henchmen.
- (3) Bring to an immediate end "this senseless bloodshed."

The generals said it was the duty of all German officers to explain this situation to their troops.

The Russians took care to see that the statement would reach Germany, broadcasting it over shortwave radio and dropping thousands of printed copies from planes in German-held territory.

Ambassador Of Argentina Is Recalled

Diplomatic Rift Been Developing Many Months

WASHINGTON, July 25—(P)—The recall to Argentina of Ambassador Adrian Escobar completes the diplomatic break between Washington and Buenos Aires which has been developing since the Farrell regime took office last January.

Diplomatic quarters here awaited with considerable interest tomorrow's promised statement from Buenos Aires as a possible hint whether last night's action is to be followed by the withdrawal of Argentina's ambassadors to other American capitals or whether Escobar is to be the only one affected.

In the latter event, the move would be interpreted in Washington to mean that the Argentine government headed by President Edelmiro Farrell is pursuing a policy of trying to drive a wedge into Pan American unity and split off some of the South American countries from the United States.

No Action Before Consulting

To combat this the other American nations have insisted on taking no action regarding Argentina except after consultation among themselves and agreement on a course satisfactory to all. This was stressed particularly by Secretary of State Hull at his press conference yesterday when he disclosed that a statement on policy would be issued but that the need for consultation with all the American governments would delay it several days.

Despite the recall from Buenos Aires of U. S. Ambassador Norman Armour and diplomatic representatives of other Latin American republics, the decision of the Argentine government to withdraw Escobar came as somewhat of a surprise.

Five in Escape From Training School

Local police and state highway patrol Trooper Lloyd Amos were notified late Monday night by officials of the Missouri Training school at Booneville of five escapees. The boys were believed to have been heading for Sedalia, but evidently took another route, as roads leading into Sedalia were carefully watched until early this morning.

The boys were believed to have stolen a car at Pilot Grove late Monday night.

The stolen car was found shortly before noon today abandoned in the driveway to the farm of Walter Rissler, about three miles east of Sedalia on highway 50. The owner of the car came for it late this afternoon.

The car had the key in it when found. It was reported to the local police department. Finding of the car was reported by Mr. Rissler to Sheriff Ross Bothwell, who went to the farm and had it towed to Sedalia.

Members of the state highway patrol, sheriff's office and Sedalia police were endeavoring to find some clue which might lead to the apprehension of the boys. It is believed they may still be in or near Sedalia.

Russia Will Not Make Claims to Polish Territory

LONDON, July 25—(P)—Russia announced tonight it would conclude an agreement with the Polish Committee of National Liberation, rather than the exile government in London, covering relations between the advancing Red army and the civil administration of liberated Polish territory.

The Soviet's announcement, broadcast by Moscow and recorded by the Soviet monitor, said the Russians have "no aims in acquiring any part of Polish territory" and gave the view that the western Bug river is regarded by Premier Stalin's regime as the Polish-Russian frontier.

Russian forces are well across the Bug and are advancing swiftly.

The announcement followed a manifesto issued yesterday by the Soviet-sponsored national committee of Poland setting up as a basic principle the transfer since pre-1939 eastern Polish lands to Russia, describing these as Ukrainian, White Russian and Lithuanian lands.

The committee said the Poles wanted East Prussia, most of Pomerania and other eastern German territory to the Oder river, which enters the Baltic sea at Stettin.

Senator Truman And President are To Meet Soon

KANSAS CITY, July 25—(P)—As Sen. Truman (D-Mo) recalled old times with the home folks, still crowding in today to congratulate him on his Democratic vice presidential nomination, these two questions were asked repeatedly:

(1) When will Truman meet President Roosevelt to discuss the plans for the fourth term campaign?

(2) How important a role will the Missouri be expected to play between now and the November elections?

The president accepted the nomination by radio from a west coast naval station July 20, and since then there has been no hint of his whereabouts.

But local politicians perked up yesterday when Truman, talking with some of the men who served under him in France in Battery D of the old Missouri National Guard, said: "I'd be very happy to meet the president here or anywhere." And then added: "Missouri is a very hospitable state."

Censorship restricts all information of the president's movements, and Truman said he hadn't heard from Mr. Roosevelt since the president telegraphed congratulations on Truman's nomination.

May be in Midwest

But local Democrats think that Truman and the president may meet soon, possibly somewhere in the middlewest, to discuss their plans. And from that meeting, whenever and wherever it is held, they believe will come a program which will give Truman an unusually heavy part for a vice presidential nominee since Mr. Roosevelt has said he would not campaign in the usual sense of the term.

Truman has said he will stay in

Action Believed To be the Heaviest Since D-Day of The Invasion

By Austin Bealmear

LONDON, July 25—(P)—Well over 1,500 U. S. heavy bombers, the greatest fleet of four engine aircraft ever dispatched on a single mission and an equal number of lighter planes were thrown against the Germans in the western sector of the Normandy front today to carve a path of advance for Lt. Gen. Omar N. Bradley's new offensive.

By Gladwin Hill

SUPREME HEADQUARTERS, Allied Expeditionary Force, July 25—(P)—

Supported by a massive armada of some 4,000 warplanes, the American and British armies burst forth at both ends of the 100-mile Normandy front today, and showed the Germans backward in probably the greatest coordinated ground drive since D-Day.

Three thousand U. S. planes, including a record mission of 1,500 heavy bombers, smashed at the Germans opposing the new American offensive, location of which was not disclosed.

Hundreds of other planes supported the British-Canadian push south of Caen. In quick initial gains of more than a mile, British-Canadian tanks and infantry battling toward open tank country captured two towns, despite fierce resistance by at least two German SS armored divisions.

Fighting Is Fierce

"Fighting continues very strenuously "on both the American and British sectors, supreme headquarters declared.

Throughout the day, headquarters kept secret all details of the American drive. The U. S. First Army has been strung along a widening front from fallen St. Lo to Lessay on the west coast.

(Berlin said the Americans attacked from the area northwest of St. Lo, and declared a small penetration had been sealed off).

The British Second Army, hammering along on a four-mile front down the road to Falaise, captured St. Martin De Fontenay and Verrieres and street fighting raged in May-Sur-Orne. These towns are some five miles below Caen.

Savage Blows Delivered

Fighting also swirled the town of Tilly-La-Campagne. Front dispatches said there was savage, close-quarter fighting in indecisive battle after the British-Canadian cracked through the outer crust of German defenses and ran into a bristling series of anti-tank positions and machine-gun nests. The Germans threw in batches of tanks to hold their lines.

The British jumped off before dawn, and the American attack opened shortly before noon. Huge artillery barrages supported both drives.

Besides the big bombers, the American air fleets aiding Lt. Gen. Omar N. Bradley's troops included medium and light craft spraying German defenses with bullets and fragmentation bombs.

The double offensive broke a four-day stalemate in France. Gen. Sir Bernard L. Montgomery, side-stepping a formidable German anti-tank screen south-east of Caen sent his forces piling southward on the road to Falaise along a four-mile front, heading toward firm open ground excellent for tank battles.

The ridge highway which the British and Canadians were following leads to Falaise, birthplace of William the Conqueror, and to Paris. In the early hours of the push, while the advancing troops still were shielded by ground mists, the British and Canadians reached May-Sur-Orne for an advance of 700 yards and Verrieres for a gain of 1,500 yards. They also reached Tilly-La-Campagne, nearly a mile east of the road. All these points are about five miles below Caen. Bad weather checked Gen. Montgomery's offensive last week.

Falaise is 20 miles southeast of Caen and 110 air line miles west of Paris.

Would Reach an Accord in Polish Rights

Poland with German lands for losses to Russia in the east. Russia also claims the Baltic states of Estonia, Latvia and Lithuania; parts of Finland and pre-war Rumania.

The exiled Polish government in London, with which the Russians severed relations more than a year ago, was by-passed by the latest turn of events and refused comment on the new Moscow declaration, saying it was awaiting reaction in the United States and Britain.

The exiled group has been pinning its hopes in the Russian-Polish dispute on support of the people inside Poland.

Red armies drove this week to within less than 50 miles of Warsaw. Late in 1939 after the German invasion of Poland, the country was partitioned for the fourth time by a Russian-German agreement.

Today's statement, by the Peoples Commissariat for Foreign Affairs, was made because the Red army "has reached the state frontier between the Soviet Union and Poland" by crossing the western Bug river, the Moscow radio said.

The statement said the Red army had entered Poland "to help the Polish people in the task of their liberation from the Yoke of the German invaders and for the restoration of an independent, strong and Democratic Poland."

It said the Soviet considered the administration of liberated territory the "task of the Polish people."

Gets 55 Letters on Reaching France

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Kuhlman, 921 East Thirteenth street, Monday received several letters from their son, Pvt. Ernest R. Kuhlman, telling them he and his buddy, Pvt. Earl Homan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Homan of Ottumwa, had arrived safely in France and each had fifty-five letters waiting for them when they arrived.

Before entering service Pvt. Kuhlman had associated with a cousin of Pvt. Homan but the two had never met. They left for the army at the same time and went to Texas where they lived across the street from each other but still did not meet. As they were leaving Texas, sitting together in the back of a truck a Missouri car passed them on the highway. "There goes a car from my town?" asked Homan, "What town?" asked Kuhlman, "Homan beamed at him, saying, 'And I am from Ottumwa.' They shook hands and have been together since that time, in California, North Carolina, Virginia, New York, England and now France.

thing of a surprise.

Action as Surprise

By E. L. Almen

BUENOS AIRES, July 25.—(AP)—The Argentine government announced last night that it had recalled its ambassador to Washington, Adrian Escobar.

A communique says the decision was taken "in view of statements regarding Argentina's position attributed to the U. S. secretary of state in dispatches from Washington."

The announcement said that "such statements, if confirmed, would constitute expressions which the government and the people of Argentina could not accept without impairment of their dignity."

Although the communique failed to specify the statements attributed to Secretary Hull it apparently referred to dispatches from Washington which said Hull disclosed yesterday that the state department had sent a report to all Latin American nations setting forth Washington's views on Argentina.

At a press conference yesterday, the dispatches added, Hull said the United States was making known the basic policies which separate the attitude of American nations supporting the Allied cause and of the attitude of the American nation supporting another cause.

The dispatches were approved for publication by Argentine authorities early today, about nine hours after the receipt here.

U. S. Forces Mile Inland on Tinian

from the bad news of its roughly-handled ground forces on Guam, Tinian and New Guinea, today broadcast that several powerful U. S. fleet task forces were prowling off the Marianas 1,500 miles from Japan.

The task forces are maneuvering in waters vital to Japan's safety but, said Tokyo, "the time is not yet ripe for our fleet to come out and attack the enemy."

Naval commentator Masanori Ito candidly explained that Japan's combined fleet lacked the air power of the American armadas and that "the time to deliver the coup de grace to the enemy has not yet arrived." The Japanese fleet will come out only after cool appraisal of relative fleet strength and geographic consideration, Ito said.

The broadcast conceivably had two purposes: To explain why the Japanese navy made only one move to defend the Marianas—and that a costly one—and to fish for an indication of where the U. S. fleet would strike next.

In the Marianas sea battles in June Japan lost 747 planes and more than 30 ships.

Sgt. Whitmire Back From China

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Whitmire of Hughesville, route two, are anxiously awaiting the arrival home of their son, S/Sgt. Murray P. Whitmire, 29, who arrived at Miami, Fla., last Wednesday after being in Central China the past three years. He is expected to arrive in St. Louis, where his wife resides, this Wednesday.

S/Sgt. Whitmire, who does the purchasing for his outfit of the air corps, left for military service January 11, 1941. He was sent from Marshallfield, Calif., after 11 months of training, to Australia, and from that station was sent to India, where he served a year before going to China.

Missouri until after the state primary Aug. 1. Sen. Bennett Clark, accused by his opponents of being a pre-Pearl Harbor isolationist and of failing to support the president on important issues, is running for re-nomination on the Democratic ticket.

Fellow townsmen of Sen. Truman turned out 3,000 strong last night to greet the nominee, his wife and daughter, Miss Margaret Truman, in an informal reception on the Truman lawn, at Independence. The Trumans stood in a bouquet-filled rose arbor, shaking hands and chatting with their visitors, who throughout most of the evening formed a queue of approximately 200 persons. Recorded music was amplified for the crowd.

The senator made a typical, brief speech of appreciation, and Rep. C. Jasper Bell in a short talk declared Truman had brought honor to his community. Former comrades of World War I, members of the American Legion and political candidates were prominent among the visitors.

Senator Truman is scheduled to speak at a Buchanan county Democratic rally in St. Joseph tonight in behalf of Roger Seamon, candidate to the governorship of Missouri.

reeling back toward the Gothic line in the north.

The announcement said Goering himself appointed Goebbels to the post of commissar for total war effort of the reich and could in the future "demand information from and give instructions to the highest reich authorities."

(The wording suggested that he might indeed give orders to Hitler or Himmler becoming in effect the de facto German dictator. Reports in the past few months from neutral countries have suggested that Goering might eventually head the German government in a Nazi effort to secure something less than unconditional surrender.)

Here After Being Made a Bombardier

Lieut. and Mrs. Charles F. Evans are here for a visit with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Evans, 1710 South Monteuau avenue and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Pirtle, 666 East Sixteenth street.

Lieut. Evans was graduated from the bombardier-flying school of the Central Flying Training Command at the Childress Army Air Field at Childress, Texas, on July 22 as a bombardier and D.R. navigator and received his commission. He also received his silver bombardier wings.

He has been transferred to Lincoln, Neb., and is now on a two weeks' furlough. Mrs. Evans, who has been with him in Childress, Texas, will go with him to Nebraska. She was formerly Miss Helen Pirtle of Sedalia. Lieut. Evans entered service on November 6, 1942.

Obituaries

Mrs. Amelia Simon

Mrs. Amelia Simon, 72 years old, passed away at the Bothwell hospital at 9:00 o'clock this morning where she had been a patient since last Thursday.

Mrs. Simon was a life long resident of Pettis county. She was born in Pettis county June 22, 1872.

She was married to Adam Simon, February 14, 1897 at Sedalia. Mr. Simon died July 16 of this year, and his funeral service was held one week ago today.

Mrs. Simon is survived by four daughters, Ida Simon and Anna Simon of the home; Mrs. Freda Albers, Waco, Neb.; Mrs. Clara Young, Sedalia. Seven grandchildren also survive.

The body is at the Ewing funeral home. Funeral arrangements have not been completed.

Mrs. Helen E. Flessa

Mrs. Helen E. Flessa, 59 years old, passed away at her home, 2116 East Broadway at 1:20 o'clock this morning. She had been in failing health for some time and had been critically ill for the past three weeks.

Mrs. Flessa was born in Kentucky and was left an orphan by the death of her parents when she was a baby. She made her home with an uncle and at an early age came to Missouri. She was married to John Flessa in 1928, who survives. Also surviving are two step-sons, Theodore Flessa, Kansas City, Missouri; three step-daughters, Mrs. William Kuehn, Jefferson City, Mo.; Mrs. Hulda Barrow, Tulsa, Oklahoma; Mrs. Adella Opal, Jamestown, Missouri.

Funeral services will be held at the Ewing funeral home at 2:00 o'clock Wednesday afternoon. The Rev. William C. Bessmer will officiate. Friends of the family will serve as pallbearers. Interment will be in the Crown Hill cemetery.

The body is at the Ewing funeral home.

Mrs. Blanche Goodwin Hawley

Mrs. Blanche Goodwin Hawley, a member of one of Sedalia's oldest families, died at 6:30 o'clock this morning at Bothwell hospital where she had been a patient for the past four months.

Mrs. Hawley was born September 28, 1874 in Sedalia, the daughter of Albert and Susan McVey Goodwin. For a number of years she had resided on South Marshall avenue at the home of her cousin, Richard Marshall.

Surviving are a brother, Charles A. McVey and a sister.

Funeral services will be held at 10:00 o'clock Wednesday morning at the McLaughlin chapel with Rev. H. U. Campbell, pastor of the Fifth Street Methodist church, to officiate.

Mrs. George Lovercamp and Mrs. Ervin Robinson, accompanied by Mrs. Mae Moser, will sing "Home of the Soul" and "Abide With Me."

Pallbearers will be: C. E. Garrett, Gerald Green, Judge Dimmitt Hoffman, Henry Salveter, William Brown and Raymond Peters.

Burial will be in Crown Hill cemetery.

Mrs. Mattie Smiley

Mrs. Mattie Smiley, 76 years old, widow of the late James Smiley, died at 9 o'clock Monday night at her home northeast of Longwood. She had been bedfast only about a week but had been an invalid in a wheel-chair for the past seven years.

Mrs. Smiley was born in Longwood on April 3, 1868 and lived her entire life in that community. She was married to James Smiley on November 13, 1901. Two children were born to this union, both of whom survive, a son, Harry Smiley of the home and a daughter, Mrs. Irvin Smith of Longwood.

The body was taken to the Westbrook funeral home in Houstonia and removed to the home of the daughter, Mrs. Irvin Smith, east of Longwood, this afternoon.

Funeral services will be held at Miller's chapel at 2:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon with Rev. Robb of Longwood to officiate. Pallbearers will be nephews of the deceased.

Music will be in charge of Mrs. John Alexander.

Burial will be at Longwood.

Funeral of Mrs. Miller

Funeral services for Mrs. Sarah F. Miller, widow of the late W. R. Miller, who died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Simmie Baker in Beaman, about 7:10 o'clock Monday morning, will be held at the Antioch church in Hickory county at 2:30 o'clock Thursday afternoon with the Rev. Oliver Hodges to officiate.

Mrs. Miller was married to W. R. Miller on December 17, 1881 and they lived their entire married life in Hickory county. Mr. Miller preceded her in death five years ago. One daughter, Ida Miller died at the age of fifteen and one son died in infancy. Surviving are five daughters, three sons, forty-one grandchildren and forty great grandchildren.

The body is at the Ewing funeral home.

Burial will be in the Antioch cemetery.

blin was announced by Marshal Stalin in a special order of the day and shortly afterward a special communique was issued declaring that the Germans had lost 539,890 troops killed and captured since the Soviet summer offensive got under way June 23. These casualties were reported inflicted by four Russian armies.

Since Marshal Rokossovsky's forces crossed the 1939-41 German-Polish border five days ago they have liberated over 9,000 square miles in their mighty drive toward the west.

The fall of Lublin, 91 miles southeast of Warsaw, after a little more than 24 hours of street fighting was celebrated in Moscow by the firing of 20 salvos from 224 guns followed by the playing of the Soviet and Polish national anthems.

Jewish Music in Novel Concert

A presentation of beauty and history was the concert "Cavalcade of Jewish Music" presented at Sedalia Army Air Field chapel at 8:15 o'clock Monday night by Susie Michael, pianist, and Maurice Friedman, baritone.

A force originating in this entirely new approach to musical entertainment and strengthened by artistic interpretation led one down through all the ages of Jewish music, bringing him away enriched and enlightened.

The pleasing speaking voice and stage manner dignified and reposed, of Susie Michael, added color to her fascinating description of the development of Jewish music. Her accompaniments, played in manner as easy and accurate as her speech, were as finished as careful study could make them.

The singing and acting ability of Maurice Friedman has been described in these terms: "He is a most satisfying singer, specializing in songs of brighter mood but having also a feeling of most intense tragedy when the story demands it. His is a thunderous fortissimo and a whispering pianissimo, both of which he uses with discretion, but he can use either very effectively for a climax."

"His acting is as good as his singing. His ability to lose himself in whatever he is singing is almost uncanny."

ternoon at his home, 1304 East Sixth street, were held at 10 o'clock this morning at the family home with Rev. William Tatum officiating, assisted by Rev. Earl Brummett, pastor of the Cumberland Presbyterian church. Pallbearers were Duward Goode, Pierpont Atkinson, Percy Martin, Claude Goode, all of Ottumwa, and Lloyd King and Will Kabler of Sedalia.

George Eno Jr., sang: "The Sweet Bye and Bye," and "Abide With Me." Mrs. A. L. Lacer was the accompanist.

Burial was in the Ottumwa cemetery.

Charles Walter Jones

Charles Walter Jones, 45 years old, died at his home, 407 East Howard street, at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon.

The body is at the Ewing funeral home. No funeral arrangements have been made.

Joseph Sydney Settles

Joseph Sydney Settles, 77 years old, passed away at the state sanitarium at Nevada, Missouri, Monday afternoon. He had been a patient there the past forty years.

Mr. Settles was born in North Middleton, Kentucky, July 1, 1867, the son of the late Joseph and Sarah Robinson Settles. He came to Missouri with his parents when he was a small boy. He was never married.

He is survived by one brother, David F. Settles of Longwood. Graveside services will be held at the Longwood cemetery at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning. Rev. W. L. Robb will officiate. Interment will be in the Settles family lot in the Longwood cemetery.

The body is at the Ewing funeral home.

Funeral of B. Burlingame

Funeral services for Bingham Burlingame of Blackwater, who died at his home following a heart attack, were held Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock at Blackwater Christian church, of which he was a member. Burial was in Nelson. Born in Miller county July 28, 1884, Burlingame was the son of William and Willie Shuster Burlingame. He spent his early life in Miller county near Olean and on February 22, 1906, was married to Miss Orpha Sherman at Belle. They moved to Blackwater in 1918 and had since made their home there.

Mr. Burlingame retired several years ago as a Missouri Pacific Railway telegraph operator.

Surviving are the widow; three daughters, Mrs. Kemp (Loretta) McClure of Kansas City, Mrs. William (Lucille) Meyers of Fayette and Miss Mary Clair Burlingame of Alliance, Neb.; one son, Harold, of Berger, Tex.; his mother, who resides in Eldon; and three brothers, Frank and Aubrey of Eldon and August of Pattonville.

"Pin Worms Can't Harm MY Child!"

Better learn the Truth, Mother!

You may think that Pin-Worms are just a harmless nuisance. Or you may think that this tormenting, embarrassing infection strikes only certain types of people.

Don't you believe it! Rich or poor, young or old—anybody, anywhere can have Pin-Worms. And these crawling pests, living and growing inside the human body, can warn signs that may mean this nasty infection — the aggravating rectal itching, uneasy stomach, bed-wetting, nervous fretting and uneven appetite.

If you suspect Pin-Worms, get a package of P-W tablets right away, and be sure to follow the directions. P-W is the new Pin-Worm treatment developed by the laboratories of Dr. D. Jayne & Son, America's leading specialists in worm medicines.

Important Scientific Discovery
The small, easy-to-take P-W tablets contain a remarkable drug (gentian violet) that is being hailed by high medical authorities as the most effective means ever discovered for dealing with Pin-Worms. Thanks to this important new scientific discovery, P-W works in a way that gently but effectively destroys stubborn Pin-Worms.

Ask your druggist: P-W for Pin-Worms!

DAILY WASHINGTON merry-go-round

by Drew Pearson

WASHINGTON, July 25 — As the war moves faster in Asia, administration advisers are convinced that the ticklish problem of India, which Roosevelt repeatedly has postponed, must be tackled soon.

Each time the president has discussed India with Winston Churchill, he has received a blunt cold shoulder. Once, last year, when U. S. Ambassador William Phillips, after his return to this country from India, talked to the prime minister at FDR's request, Churchill banged the table and said:

"I have always been right about Hitler and everyone else in Europe. I'm also right about Indian policy. Any change in Indian policy now will mean a blood bath."

At about the time Phillips talked to Churchill, he also submitted a report to President Roosevelt, which will be the basis for any new U. S. proposals to Britain. In this report Ambassador Phillips generally considered pro-British, made some critical, forthright statements about British policy.

"It is time for the British to act," he wrote President Roosevelt. "This they can do by a solemn declaration from the king-emperor that India will achieve her independence at a specific date after the war. . . .

"I feel strongly, Mr. President, that in view of our military position in India, we should have a voice in these matters. It is not right for the British to say this is none of your business when we alone presumably will have the major part to play in the struggle with Japan."

Ambassador Phillips' report is considered so important inside the state department and the whole Indian picture is so vital to Allied success in Asia, that a large part of his report follows:

Ambassador Phillips' Report

"Dear Mr. President:

"May I add a few words to what I said to you Tuesday afternoon when I had the pleasure of giving you an oral report on my impressions of the Indian situation."

"Assuming that India is known to be an important base for our future operations against Burma and Japan, it would seem to be of highest importance that we should have around us a sympathetic India rather than an indifferent and possibly a hostile India. It would appear that we will have the prime responsibility in the conduct of the war against Japan. There is no evidence that the British intend to do more than give token assistance. If that is so, then the conditions surrounding our base in India become of vital importance."

"At present the Indian people are at war only in a legal sense. Indians feel they have no voice in the government and therefore no responsibility in the conduct of the war. They feel that they have nothing to fight for, as they are convinced that the professed war aims of the United Nations do not apply to them. The British prime minister, in fact, has stated that the provisions of the Atlantic Charter are not applicable to India and it is not unnatural, therefore, that Indian leaders are beginning to wonder whether the Charter is only for the benefit of the white races."

"The present Indian army is purely mercenary. General Stilwell has expressed his concern over the situation and is particularly in regard to the poor morale of the Indian officers."

"The attitude of the general public towards the war is even worse. Lassitude and indifference and bitterness have increased as a result of the famine conditions, the growing high cost of living and continued political deadlock."

"While India is broken politically into various parties and

Salute to a Lady

By Victoria Wolf Copyright, 1944, NEA Service, Inc.

The U. S. Army hospital in the little native village in the heart of Ailecia is necessarily crude but contains all essential equipment. Miss Fryberg warns the newly-arrived nurses that they are to bring all problems to her instead of bothering Dr. Merrill.

'NO BIGGER THAN MY HEART'

VIII

AT home I tired easily. Here I have forgotten what weariness drives me on. Whatever I do is for Howard and for Howard I can never do enough.

But we, with all of our combined energy, are topped by one nurse—Freda! She is the most beautiful girl I have ever seen in uniform and the craziest. She is indefatigable, clever, efficient. Dr. Merrill thinks a great deal of her and so does Miss Fryberg. The boys adore her and she is marvellous to them. But she is hateful to us. She despises women, despises them irrevocably, with psychopathic strength.

In the operating room Freda is at her best. There in Dr. Merrill's realm, a miracle of antiseptics in the bacillus world of Arabian dirt, she displays the most remarkable of her many talents.

She boils the water in the sterilizing room and prepares the anesthetic which she is supposed to give. She straps the patient to the operating table and helps the two assistant nurses into their sterile outfits. She even helps Dr. Merrill change his gown and gloves. Without a single false move, one girl does the job which was done at home by four.

It is a scientific pleasure to watch Dr. Merrill operate. He is groups, all have one object in common — eventual freedom and independence from British domination.

Time for British to Act
"There would seem to be only one remedy to this highly unsatisfactory situation in which we are unfortunately but nevertheless seriously involved and that is to change the attitude of the people of India towards the war, make them feel that we want them to assume responsibilities to the United Nations and are prepared to give them facilities for doing so."

"The present political conditions do not permit of any improvement in this respect. Even though the British should fall again, it is high time that they should make an effort to improve conditions and re-establish confidence among the Indian people that their future independence is to be granted."

"Words are of no avail. They only aggravate the present situation. It is time for the British to act. This they can do by a solemn declaration from the king-emperor that India will achieve her independence at a specific date after the war and that, as a guarantee of good faith in this respect, a provisional representative coalition government will be established at the center and limited powers transferred to it."

Much at Stake for U. S.
"I feel strongly, Mr. President, that in view of our military position in India, we should have a voice in these matters. It is not right for the British to say this is none of your business when we alone presumably will have the major part to play in the struggle with Japan."

"If we do nothing and merely accept the British point of view that conditions in India are none of our business, then we must be prepared for various serious consequences in the internal situation in India which may develop as a result of the despair and misery and anti-white sentiments of hundreds of millions of subject people."

"The peoples of Asia — and I am supported in this opinion by other diplomatic and military observers — cynically regard this war as one between fascist and imperialist powers. A generous British gesture to India would with fresh water and put the straw between his dry lips, anticipating the most urgent wish of all our patients. He drank in slow relishing gulps but through a funny grimace showed this wasn't his only wish.

"Take a letter, nurse, please, will you?"
"You shouldn't talk so much, Sergeant."

"Please, nurse, a short letter. It bothers me. I have to get it out of my head."
"You mustn't dictate it. Save your strength. I can write some lines for you."

"No!" he warned off, "you couldn't say what I have to say. Please, nurse!"

I took the notebook out of my bulging pocket and showed it to him. "Not more than one page of this size today, Sergeant."

"I hope you haven't an oversized handwriting, nurse. My folks have good eyesight." He lay back and dictated with eyes closed.

Dear Mom and Dad:
I know how heavy your hearts are but, please, you mustn't live in terms of your fear and dread. Live by your hope, courage, and faith. These will sustain you. Your fears will not. I know. Take my word for it.

I am glad to be here. Just remember that as long as I am thousands of miles away, so is the enemy. This is his back doorstep I am on. He's not on yours. Which is exactly the way I intend to keep it.

The men who know say this is a big war, but I have my own way of looking at it. I see it as a war no bigger than my heart. I guess all the boys do. And so, the war actually is as big as the millions of our hearts. And that is why it will be won. Help with your hearts to win it, too. So long, folks. I'll be back as soon as I can.

Always yours,
Everett.
"It's a fine letter, Sergeant," I said. "What else can I do for you?"
"Mother always kissed me good-night," he grinned.

Looking Backward
Forty Years Ago

The exterior of Wood's Opera house is being repainted and the sidewalks on the east side of the building repaired.

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Cassidy departed today for Colorado Springs where they will sojourn for a couple of weeks.

Louis Hoffman, E. E. Coddling, J. L. Babcock, Charles H. Daugherty, James Ellis and Will H. Carter left today for St. Joseph to attend the Republican state convention.

The heavy rain played havoc yesterday with the trenches for the sewer system at the Missouri Pacific shops grounds, their caving in at many places involving quite a loss to the contractor.

Pettis county and Sedalia public schools stand high at the World's Fair, their educational exhibit comparing most favorably with those from Kansas City, St. Louis, St. Joseph and other Missouri cities. Superintendent of Schools G. L. Coleman and the Pettis county teachers collected the interesting display.

While On South Pacific Sea Duty Hears Radio Report Of Sedalia Chair Theft

It's a small world and humorous incidents spread afar as indicated in a letter from Seaman First Class Marvin Jerome Kanter, to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Simon Kanter, 406 Dal-Whi-Mo court.

Take the matter of the chairs that purportedly disappeared from the police station several months ago.

Writing on June 28 from somewhere in the South Pacific, "Sonny" Kanter said, "A friend of mine on board, a radioman, told me he knew who the night chief of police in Sedalia is."

That surprised the Sedalia, because his friend is from the state of California.

"Who is he?" he asked the radioman, who countered "Vickrey."

Further questioning revealed that Seaman Kanter's friend just had heard a short wave radio broadcast which related the incident of the theft of chairs virtually from under the noses of police officers here, and Raymond Vickrey, who then was night chief of police, was mentioned. Thus the Californian's information, and he seemed to get a big kick out of hearing something about Sedalia.

It was fun for Kanter, too, who has been on sea duty most of the time since last November. He went into service a year ago.

P. S. When his mother writes of the local story it would be best for her to say that the police declare firmly that the disappearance of the chairs was simply the work of pranksters.

Chief Clerk Of Highway Patrol Ousted

Charged With Embezzling $5000 By Payroll Padding

JEFFERSON CITY, July 25 — (AP)—Roy M. Schnell, chief clerk of the highway patrol, was arrested Monday and will be charged with embezzling more than $5,000 by padding payroll, Col. M. Stanley Ginn, patrol superintendent, said.

Ginn said Schnell signed a statement admitting the payroll padding, which the veteran employee said he began in May, 1943.

"I started the practice of padding the payroll of the state highway patrol by inserting on said payroll fictitious names of fictitious persons," his statement said.

After Approved
"It was my practice x x x to insert said fictitious names on the payroll after it had been approved by the officer approving said payroll."

Schnell's statement said he would cash the warrants "by endorsing the name of the fictitious persons thereon, signing my own name and obtaining the cash on said warrants from the cashier of the state treasurer's office."

Schnell, whose home is in Jefferson City, has a wife and two sons, both in service. His salary was $210 a month.

His statement said he had drawn from one to four false checks each month since May, 1943. The 37 checks, made out under 20 different names varied from $47 to $171.

Fired Last Thursday
Schnell was fired last Thursday, Ginn said. The job of making up the patrol's July payroll was turned over to Sgt. G. M. Schuppan, property officer, who discovered the strange names on the payrolls.

Ginn said Schnell "hasn't been able to tell us what he did with the money except that he spent it. He says he doesn't have it now."

Ginn said the case would be turned over to Curtis J. Quimby, Cole county prosecutor, tomorrow.

Schnell was employed by the highway department from 1923 to 1937, when he was assigned to the patrol.

Former Smithton Instructor In Saipan Invasion
Friends of Lt. J. R. Stockman, a former member of the Smithton high school faculty, now a member of the armed forces, have received word that he has been through the Saipan invasion, emerging without injury. His group landed on the island June 6.

Burning Trash Sets Fire To Garage
The fire departments made a run at 5:08 p. m. Monday to the residence of Nelson White, 422 North Engineer avenue, where a burning trash pile had set fire to a garage. There was only slight damage.

Three C-47's Missing Off Coast

POPE FIELD, N. C., July 25 — (AP)—Three C-47 transport planes and 15 men comprising their crews Monday were officially reported missing off the North Carolina coast by the commanding officer of this army air base at which the men and planes were stationed.

The planes were on an over-water training flight Friday night when last heard from. Since then continual and extensive search for the men and planes has been conducted by army, navy and coast guard installations, but was terminated tonight, the announcement said, with exhaustion of all hope of finding them.

The missing men and next of kin included:
Second Lt. Junior R. Davidson; father, John R. Davidson, RFD No. 3, Keota, Okla.

St. Louis in A Good Spot For Series

Cards Traveling at Pace Which Should Clinch the Pennant

By Jack Hand
Associated Press Sports Writer

St. Louis was in a good spot today to start planning for that all Sportsman's Park world series.

The Cardinals were 13½ games out in front of the National League traveling at a pace that would clinch the flag by Labor Day. If the Red Birds don't falter they will win 110 games and crowd the all-time record set by Frank Chance's Chicago Cubs who won 116 in 1906. The best since then was the 110 taken by the Yankees in 1927.

Luke Sewell's Brownies broke even in two important four-game series with Boston and New York and now entertain seventh and eighth place Washington and Philadelphia while the Yanks and Red Sox tangle with the surging Cleveland Indians and Detroit Tigers.

While the Brownies were hard pressed to split even with their closest contenders, Cleveland took seven of eight from the other eastern visitors and moved to within a half game of third place and within four and a half of the leaders.

The Tribe steamrollered Washington, 10-1 yesterday as Ed "Specs" Kliehman stopped the Nats with four hits for his eighth victory. The Baltimore grad has won his last four to justify manager Lou Boudreau's action in taking him out of the bull pen. Mickey Rocco drove in five runs to help Early Wynn blow his sixth straight and 13th of the year.

Denny Galehouse took Nels Potter's turn from St. Louis and whipped Boston, 6-5, although relief help from George Caster was needed when the Sox spurted for four in the eighth. Potter, is under a 10-day suspension because of last week's "spit ball" incident. Ernie "Jumbo" Bonham scattered 10 Chicago hits while Johnny Lindell set the slugging pace with four hits in an 11-5 Yankees triumph over Buck Ross.

Dizzy Trout whitewashed Philadelphia, 1-0, for his 14th win to move Detroit back into the .500 circle at Bobo Newsom's expense.

Teddy Wilks, husky Cardinal rookie, continued his sensational success story by whipping Boston's Jim Tobin, 7-1, with the help of three successive doubles by Martin Marion.

Brooklyn had its biggest inning of the year, scoring nine times in the lucky seventh, including a 2-run homer by Dixie Walker, to rout Rip Sewell and defeat Pittsburgh, 12-7. Charley Fuchs, recently acquired from the Browns, was credited with his first victory.

The New York Giants exploded on Claude Passeau for four runs in the eighth to pull out a 5-3 nod over Chicago.

Cincinnati and Philadelphia was rained out.

Sports Roundup

By Fritz Howell
(Pinch-Hitting for Hugh Fullerton, Jr.)

NEW YORK, July 25.—(AP)—A "tale of two bucks" is the mid-west's current laugh-getter. Milwaukee's Brewers, getting set for tomorrow's American Association all-star game, erected 2,000 outfield seats to take care of the "all-for-charity" crowd which will see the loop-leaders meet the pick of the other seven clubs.

To aid the buildup, V. P. Mike Heath asked the other executives to mail pictures of their players for the all-star squad.

Food for thought: Bob Stedler of the Buffalo Evening News says that of the $2,827,601 wagered during the Fort Erie (Ontario) race meeting, only $1,971,529 was returned to the winning ticket holders. A total of $556,072, or about 22 per cent, was deducted.

It's a man's world: Dorris Toler, Penn State's freshman miler, has asked the courts to change his first name to "Dick."

He's not kidding: Kenny Jones of the Peoria Journal-Transcript believes that "if you ask Joe Louis the toughest gent he ever faced, he'll answer 'Morgen-thau.'"

New Orleans losing streak by letting a fly ball get away for a triple—a ball Manager Lafayette Fresco Thompson thought he should have caught in his hip pocket.

Two innings later, a Pelican hoisted a foul into the stands, and a spectator leaped up to make a tasty catch. Thompson raced from the coaching line into the stands and wrung the spectator's hand.

"Nice catch, nice catch," he yelled. "Would you mind coming out early tomorrow and showing Douglas how you did it?"

SAAF Gliders Win Two Over The Weekend

Defeat V-12 Navy 8-7; Higginsville By a 10-4 Score

The Sedalia Army Air Field Gliders had a double victory over the past week end when they defeated the V-12 Navy team from Central college, Fayette, last Saturday 8 to 7, then on Sunday defeated the Higginsville A's at Higginsville by a score of 10 to 4.

In the game with the Blue-jackets, the Gliders loaded the bases in the last half of the ninth inning with two out and the score tied 7 to 7. Pfc. Gerald Rumsch, centerfielder, was at bat. Willes, relief pitcher for the Bluejackets, wound up for his delivery and T/Sgt. Russell McConnell broke for home plate from third. With the hit and run play on, Rumsch swung, but his bat was tipped by the over-anxious catcher, Korte. As the ball trickled toward the mound, McConnell came across the plate with the winning run.

A Tight Game
The game was one of the tightest played on the First Troop Carrier air base diamond this season.

Allowing six hits, Sgt. Junior Smith pitched all the way for the Gliders, and chalked up his third victory of the season. Moore started on the mound for the Bluejackets, but gave way to Willes in the fourth inning. The King Of England Makes Inspection Tour In Italy

ROME, July 25 (AP)—King George VI of England began a tour of the battlefields of Italy today.

Wearing the dark olive green uniform of a field marshal, the king arrived by air from Britain yesterday.

ROME, July 25 (AP)—King George VI of England, trim in the dark olive green uniform of a field marshal, landed Monday in Italy on an inspection tour which will carry him to forward battle fronts approaching Pisa, Florence and Rimini.

The king's big plane with Beau-fighter and Spitfire escort landed on a bomb-battered airport at 5:15 p. m. after flying from Britain.

The king appeared fresh after the swift trip, broken by one three-hour halt. Gen. Sir Henry Maitland Wilson, Mediterranean theater commander, first greeted him. Then Admiral Sir John Cunningham, Allied naval commander in this theater, and Harold MacMillan, British minister to the French Committee in Algiers, and Air Vice Marshal G. B. A. Baker greeted their monarch in that order.

The king stood under the wings of his plane for five minutes chatting with the four man reception committee and members of his own small party. With him were his secretary, Sir Eric Mirville; Col. The Hon Sir Piers Legh, his equerry; Group Capt. E. H. Fielden, captain of the king's aircraft; a bodyguard and two valets.

Wing Commander Henry Collins, the pilot, said good weather favored the uneventful trip. The king spent about 20 minutes in the cockpit before retiring last night. He was interested particularly in the automatic pilot.

Collins flew in over the volcano Vesuvius and carefully circled the field three times before landing.

Runways on the airport were smooth but most buildings were shattered or flattened by Allied bombs while the Germans held it.

Only Woman Senator Faces Rigid Test In Primary Today

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., July 25.—(AP)—Senator Hattie W. Caraway's bid for renomination against strong male opposition and a test of a new party rule making would-be Negro voters subject to challenge on party loyalty grounds drew major interest in Arkansas Democratic preferential primary today.

Mrs. Caraway, the nation's only woman senator who first won election in 1932 with the aid of the late Huey Long, has conducted a quiet campaign in contrast to the vigorous activity by three of her four opponents. She expressed confidence in her renomination, saying she would lead by not less than 10,000 votes.

Attracts Attention
Her most active opponents have been Rep. J. W. (Bill) Fulbright, 39-year-old freshman congressman from Fayetteville whose "lasting peace" resolution attracted national attention; Col. T. H. Barton, 62, El Dorado oil company executive who waged a colorful campaign with the Grand Opry radio troupe from Nashville, Tenn., and Gov. Homer M. Adkins, who helped direct Mrs. Caraway's two previous campaigns. J. Ross Venable, 54, Little Rock veteran of World War I, is a fifth candidate.

Dr. J. M. Robinson, Little Rock, president of the Arkansas Negro Democratic Association, said qualified Negroes were prepared to vote in all counties but Secretary Harvey G. Combs of the Democratic State Committee said he believed only a few Negro voters could meet requirements of the new rule. Negroes previously had been barred from the Democratic primaries because of color.

A light vote of between 140,000 and 175,000 is indicated for the primary in which Representatives E. C. Gathings and Wilbur Mills have two opponents. Five other state officers will be up. The runoff primary will be held Aug. 8. Polls open at 8:30 and close at 6:30 p. m.

Oak Grove Club At Rickey Home

Mrs. Max Rickey, assisted by Mrs. Paul Lewis, was hostess to members of Oak Grove Home-makers club when the organization met for the July meeting.

The business meeting was presided over by the president, Mrs. Roy Petty, who led the group in repeating the allegiance to the flag. Mrs. Clifford Mawhorter led the devotional. Twenty-one members answered roll call, giving their favorite summer dessert.

A report of the 4-H club was given by Mrs. Ernest Schlobahn, and the health letter was read by Mrs. H. A. Wilson.

Mrs. Roy Petty read an article from the "Readers' Digest" on "The Problems of a Soldier's Wife," which was followed by the reading of the American creed by the group.

Plans were made for the annual club picnic, which is to be held at Liberty park the evening of August 10. All members and their families are invited to attend.

During the social hour, a speech was made by little Zora Snow. Guests present were: Mrs. Blanche Reid, Mrs. Robert Wilson, Mrs. Isaac Snow, Joyce Snow, and Zora and Bobby Snow.

The meeting adjourned to resume meetings September 14.

Buncombe Willing Workers At Lee Home

The Buncombe Willing Workers club held their July meeting recently at the home of Mrs. Ralph Lee. The roll call was answered by the members giving their favorite summer dessert recipe. The business meeting was then held after which refreshments were served.

The club will have a picnic at the park Sunday, August 6.

Annual Picnic by Church Group

The Youth Fellowship of the Immanuel Evangelical and Reformed church of Mora celebrated its annual picnic recently at the Carl Zimmerschied farm.

Members of the Fellowship prepared the noonday meal over an open fire along the creek bank. The afternoon was enjoyed in games, conversation and taking pictures.

Guests were: "Sonny" Zimmerschied, Mr. and Mrs. John Wilkens, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Zimmerschied and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Siegel and daughter, Kathleen.

Church News

The Philathea class of the East Sedalia Baptist church will have its annual picnic at 6:30 o'clock Thursday evening for members of the class and their families.

A fried chicken supper to which all will contribute will be served.

In case of rain the picnic will be held in the basement of the church.

In the Service

Pvt. Dave Sommer, son of Frank Sommer, 709 East Fifteenth street, and brother of Miss Helen Sommer of the same address, participated in the invasion of France. Pvt. Sommer, in the combat engineer group, was stationed in England a year and two months previous to the invasion. He receives The Democrat regularly.

S 2/c Vernon Forrest Lewis, whose mother, Mrs. Letha Lewis, resides in LaMonte, is preparing for duty with the amphibious forces aboard one of the largest ships in the navy invasion fleet. Lewis has been assigned to the crew of an L.S.T. at the amphibious training base at Camp Bradford, Va., where he is going through strenuous training required of bluejackets who man the beach-fitting tank carriers.

Gus W. Marcum, formerly of Ottumville, who is now stationed "somewhere off the coast of France" has been promoted to F 1/c. His wife was the former Wanda Jean Cave of Ottumville. Cpl. Glenn G. Cave has been transferred from Camp McCain, Miss. to Camp Steward, Ga. A brother, Pvt. Cecil D. Cave is stationed at Camp Van Dorn, Miss. They are sons of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Cave of Ottumville. Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Salmons of Ottumville received word from their son, Pfc. Ralph W. Salmons that he is with the invasion forces somewhere in France. His wife, the former Irene Soussley, is residing in Syracuse.

Vote for W. W. Blain for State Senator.—Adv.

Society

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Johnson, recently married, were honored Sunday evening when friends and neighbors gathered at their home, 1615 South Beacon avenue, for the evening. Mrs. Johnson was formerly Miss Myrtle Vest Donahoe, teacher at Horace Mann school.

Refreshments, brought by the group, were served after an evening of conversation.

Those attending were: Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Powers, Mr. and Mrs. Ora Edwards, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Arbogast and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Satorius and daughter, Mrs. John Selken, John Canterbury, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Eubank, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Battles and children, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Griffin and son, Mr. and Mrs. William Witte, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Parker, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Carr, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Greece, Mr. and Mrs. B. F.
